

Finding Materials

Basic Search

Located on the home page and on the right side of every page.

- Keyword
- Title
- Full Text

Advanced Search

Click on the Advanced Search tab located on the top of the home page.

Boolean searches using:

- Title
- Keyword
- Full-Text
- ISBN
- Subject

Search limits

- Publisher
- Publication year
- Format

Advantages of E-Books

- Available for use at home and office.
- Supports Distance Learning.
- Material located by keyword, title or full-text search.
- Keyword search within the text of book.
- Enables user to locate key phrases and passages needed for information or research.

Combined Arms Research Library
250 Gibbon Ave
Ft. Leavenworth, KS 66027
<http://cgsc.leavenworth.army.mil/carl>

Circulation Desk: (913) 758-3001
Reference Desk: (913) 758-3053

E-Books

A guide for CACNET or home use.

Combined Arms
Research Library

Fort Leavenworth, Kansas

NetLibrary E-books

CARL provides you access to thousands of full-text E-books in a variety of subjects through two collections.

Books are displayed page by page and are identical to the print versions, but with searchable text. You must create a free account to checkout NetLibrary E-books. U.S. copyright law protects NetLibrary's E-books.

Army Collection

This collection combines general interest with CGSC curriculum enhancing items and is a combination of items selected by the Community and Family Support Center Library Program and CARL. Search our catalog, <http://cgsc.leavenworth.army.mil/carl/catalog>, for titles and descriptions. The Army collection allows you to access the collection in three different ways:

1. View E-books from the catalog on Ft. Leavenworth network computers or at home with an account.
2. Go to www.NetLibrary.com from a Ft. Leavenworth network computer.
3. Log on to AKO at www.us.army.mil.
 - Click on "Army Libraries", under Reference on the bottom left.
 - Select "E-Books", and then "NetLibrary".

Kansas Library Card Collection

The Kansas Library Card (KSLC) Collection has over 10,000 E-books. Geared toward high school and junior college users, this collection is provided by the Kansas State Library Network Board for a year at a time, renewable in person. This card provides access to several other databases as well.

- Get a KSLC at the circulation desk.
- Log on at www.kslc.org, click on "NetLibrary".

Creating an Account

You must have a NetLibrary account for direct access on a home computer. The Army and the Kansas collections require a separate accounts.

- Access collections as directed.
- Click on "Create a Free Account".
- Enter the required information and click "Submit".

Use NetLibrary at Home

1. Go to www.NetLibrary.com
2. Click on "log in" and enter your username and password.
3. Search the collection.
4. Choose an item from search results.
5. View or checkout item.

Each NetLibrary E-book is only accessible by one person at a time. View books in 15-minute increments or check out an item for 24 hours of exclusive use.